The Duty of the Central Junto

In view of the fact that Joseph H. Gros pinds has declared that the doctrines which I nomes Conwin preaches are not Republic an, is it not the duty of the Central Junto or withdraw Conwis from the field? And in fast is it not Grapinos' daty to require that Conwin's appointments be cancelled? It is not only improper, but it is dishonest and highly immoral to allow a man to go about over the State under the indorsement of the Executive Committee of the Republican par-ty, to make speeches to Republican meetings, if he is not a Republican himself. Ginnives publicly deciares that Conwin is not a Republican, and the papers of the party on the Reserve are busy reading Old Tox out of the party. At the same time appoinments are made for him all through Southern Ohio, to speak as the same Republican meetings at which Mr. DENNISON is to speak. Now Mr. Stodings is one of the Committee to arrange meetings and select speakers, and he will himself be guilty of a high crime if he do not recall Counts, since the latter has began to preach heresy. This double dealing won't do for "Saints, and if something is not done, it will become a subject for the prayers of the Abolition-Higher-Law-Minusters, who the Abolition-Higher-Law-aringsters, are to leave their flocks and come down here on the 10th and 11th of this month to pray on the 10th and 11th of this month to pray on the 10th and 11th of this month to pray on the 10th and 11th of the 1 over the political sins and wickedness of the world. They should begin on the Republican party first, for there is danger that the wickedness of that party, if not so in check-ed, may be fatal to the whole concern. We W. W. Stewart, and J. W.
